

Supervisory Skills Certification

Cultivate Leaders.

Leadership requires special skills.

"I thought before I stepped foot into this class (8 weeks ago) this was going to be a waste of time. Was I ever wrong!

This course has taught me to be a more effective leader through patience, listening to others, and immediate action on problem solving on a daily basis."

Brian, Jeffords Steel & Engineering

CITEC developed this Supervisory Skills Certification Program to address the needs of North Country businesses aiming to transform great employees into great supervisors, and great supervisors into great leaders.

The program teaches practical skills and tools that are immediately applied in the workplace as homework, so your company starts receiving the benefits right away.

Eight four-hour sessions over eight weeks.

$700/person. $650 if more than one from a company.
